

Anton Florijan Barisic is CEO in Chronos Info, a consulting company with responsibility in field of leadership and management, HR management, CRM and organizational development. He achieved the great experience implementig knowledge and skills of management consulting in ICT industry, as well as wood, touristic, and food industry.

He has also extended experience in working with public sector, (public sector reform, public-private partnership, institution and capacity building, governance). Working with public sector he has gained broad experience in issues of public-private partnership.

He has achieved the master degree in informatic sciences and business administration. He has obtained world recognized certificate CMC¹ for management consultants. He is certified European Excellence Auditor and member of EFQM. He has obtained the Master of Business Training and Consultancy certificate. He has achieved master degree in economics at the University of Trento in the area of local economic development, attending European master studies on comparative development. Currently, at the University of Bologna, chair for law and economics, he is working on PhD thesis with regard to Human Capital and Local Development.

As an author or co-author he wrote about 24 scientific and professional papers, case studies and articles. He is acting as senior lecturer on course for management consulting at the college for entrepreneurship economics of the University of Zagreb. As a EU LED and HR expert he manages projects related to the local economic development, HRM and governance in South-East Europe. He has participated as team leader or key expert in many EU funded projects in Croatia and SEE Region. He is president of the Croatian Association of Management Consultants, (AMC), and member of ICMCI Committee for Education and Training. He is also member of Eastbridge Europa Association supporting economic and technological Co-operation with South-Eastern Europe.

¹ CMC - Certified Management Consultant - is an international branding and mark of qualification and represents evidence of the highest standards in management consulting and adherence to the code of ethics of the profession