Richard Pircher

Richard Pircher is Professor (FH) and director of studies Banking and Finance at the University of Applied Sciences bfi Vienna. Until 2008 he acted as head of the Center for Knowledge and Information Management at the Danube University Krems. In 2004 Richard Pircher earned his doctorate in social and economic sciences on the topic „Organizational Knowledge Base and Change Management“ at the Karl-Franzens-University Graz. In 1998 he was CEO of the cultural association Forum Stadtpark.

He conducts applied research, training and consulting in the fields of organizational and personal knowledge management, competence management and business ethics.

Contact: http://richard-pircher.net

Selected Publications:

Pircher, R. (Hrsg.) (2010): Wissensmanagement Wissenstransfer Wissensnetzwerke - Konzepte Methoden Erfahrungen, Publicis Verlag
(further information: http://richard-pircher.net)

Pircher, R., Stadler, C., Risku, H. (2005): How practitioners deal with the stickiness of knowledge - findings from a research project on knowledge transfer in Austria based companies establishing business activities in Eastern Europe, EURAM 2005 - European Academy of Management Annual Conference proceedings